

ARTICLE 4

COOPERATION IN SHARED GOVERNANCE

4.1 ~~Although the UConn-AAUP, as the elected bargaining agent, retains the exclusive right to negotiate and reach agreement on terms and conditions of employment for the members of the bargaining unit. , and The Board of Trustees retains its rights, under law, to manage and direct the University.;~~ The parties recognize the necessity of a collegial governance system for faculty in areas of academic concern. It is mutually desirable that the collegial system of shared governance be maintained and strengthened so that faculty will have a mechanism and procedure, independent of the collective bargaining process, for making recommendations to appropriate administrative officials and to the Board of Trustees, and for resolving academic matters, through the organizational divisions of the University, the University Senate, UConn-AAUP, the Administration, and the Board of Trustees.

4.2 Collegiality in academic governance on each campus of the University of Connecticut can best be accomplished through cooperation across the University Senate, and the faculties of the schools and colleges, and UConn-AAUP. Appropriate matters of concern should be brought before the Senate or the several faculties, or UConn-AAUP by their members or by the Provost of the University or his/her representatives. Upon request of the Senate, or UConn-AAUP, the Provost should transmit recommendations of the Senate or UConn-AAUP to the Board of Trustees for their consideration.

4.3 ~~This article on governance is a statement of intent and policy and is not subject to the Contractual Grievance Procedure.~~
