~~Faculty Governance—Department Documents~~

FACULTY PARTICIPATION IN DEPARTMENT GOVERNANCE

STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLE

By virtue of their command of their disciplines, University faculty shall participate in the governance of the departments in which they will exercise their judgments. Governance shall take the form of selection and evaluation of faculty members, curriculum development, research directions, and utilization of financial resources. The sections that follow ensure meaningful participation by department faculties, including the assurance of procedural regularity and fair play. ~~Administrative decisions should be communicated in a timely manner to department faculty.~~

CONTRACTUAL GOVERNANCE

Each Department, or School where a Department does not exist, shall maintain Department Governance Documents that shall be consistent with the collective bargaining agreement, and the Governance Documents of the relevant School, College and University in which the Department/School is located. Each department or school faculty shall develop Department/School Governance Documents ~~Statements~~ for the governance of their departments. The following Department Governance Documents ~~Statements~~ shall be required for each Department/School:

- A. Bylaws
- B. Merit Criteria
- C. Promotion and Tenure
- D. Workload Policies

These documents shall be drafted by faculty-elected department committees and shall require approval by a majority of eligible department voters. Each Department may choose by a majority vote of eligible Department voters to forego developing any of the preceding Department Governance Statements. Such a vote should be held on or before July 1 of every third each fiscal year, with the first vote to be held in the fiscal year following the signing of this agreement. Department faculty may also opt to vote between these intervals.

Deans shall review these departmentally approved documents to ensure they are consistent with the bylaws and Governance Documents of the School or College.

Departments shall adhere to these practices when drafting or updating the aforementioned documents:

- A. By-laws - the By-laws of each Department/School shall include inter alia determination of criteria for eligible voters.
- B. Merit Policies - refer to Article 25 of the collective bargaining agreement

C. Promotion, Tenure and Reappointment - Each department shall have a Departmental PTR Advisory Committee selected according to a method approved by a majority of the departmentally determined eligible faculty voting members. This Committee:

- Shall advise the Department Head on promotion, tenure, and reappointment;
- Shall review the faculty member's PTR File and appraise the performance and potential for teaching, scholarship and/or creative accomplishments, and service of the individual under consideration, basing its evaluations on the criteria listed in the Laws and By-Laws of the University of Connecticut, Article XIV. This evaluation should take into account the assignments of the individual;
- Shall advise the Department Head by making a formal recommendation by vote and summarizing its evaluation and vote in a written report;
- Shall follow prescribed procedures outlined in the Provost's Guidelines on Promotion, Tenure, and Reappointment.

D. Workload Policies - Workload policies shall be consistent with other the ~~“Faculty Workload”~~ articles of contained in the collective bargaining agreement. ~~(See, Infra at pg.)~~ Departments may choose by a majority vote of eligible Department faculty to adopt College/School Workload By-laws or P-policies in place of developing their own particular department policies.
